AND WHEREAS, the last 48 hours before the polls are crucial for the election machinery to create a conducive environment for free and fair elections by maintaining a constant vigil in the poll-bound areas to ensure that no unscrupulous elements can engage in nefarious activities and unduly induce and influence the electors;

AND WHEREAS, Section 126 of the Representation of People Act 1951 prohibits public meetings during the period of forty-eight hours ending with the hour fixed for the conclusion of the poll. After the closure of the campaign period, no campaign can take place within the constituency and there shall be restrictions on the presence of political functionaries, campaign functionaries, party workers, procession functionaries etc., who have been brought from outside the constituencies and who are not voters of the constituencies. Therefore, such persons should not continue to remain present in the constituency as their presence after the end of the campaign period may undermine the atmosphere for free and fair elections;

AND WHEREAS, an order under section 163 of BNSS has to be issued regarding the ban on unlawful assemblies and the prohibition on holding public meetings during the period of 48 hours ending with the hour fixed for the close of the poll, as per the instructions of the Election Commission of India;

AND WHEREAS, no loud speakers fitted on vehicles of any kind or any other manner whatsoever shall be permitted to be used in the district during the said period of 48 hours ending with the hour fixed for the close of the poll;

AND WHEREAS, no electioneering and setting up of Election booth of candidate shall be allowed within a radius of 100 metres from the polling station and no candidate shall set up more than one election booth beyond 100 metres of a polling station location even if more than one polling station has been setup in the same Polling Station Location or premises;

AND WHEREAS, cellular phones, cordless phones, wireless sets etc. shall not be allowed within the polling stations except for Observers appointed by the commission, micro observers, and other authorised election/police officials and no arms should be carried inside the polling station;

AND WHEREAS, cordless phones, wireless sets etc. shall not be allowed within 100 metres perimeter of the polling stations except for officers on duty;

AND WHEREAS, I am satisfied that there is sufficient reason to believe that unknown miscreants and disgruntled persons may attempt to create trouble and chaos outside the polling stations and thereby interfere in the smooth and fair conduct of the polling process and may thereby cause breach of peace and public tranquility, and I am satisfied that there is sufficient ground for proceeding under section 163 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 to prohibit the actions mentioned in the pre-para which may be detrimental to public peace and tranquility and may pose threat to the peaceful conduct of free and fair elections;

ORDER

I, Anu Kumari IAS, District Magistrate, Thiruvananthapuram, in exercise of the power conferred upon u/s 163 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, do hereby promulgate prohibitory order banning the following activities from 06:00 PM of 7-4-2026 till 06:00 AM of 10-4-2026 in the district of Thiruvananthapuram to ensure free, fair and peaceful conduct of Elections:

1. Unlawful assembly and holding any public meetings/rallies.

2. Presence of political functionaries and campaigners who are not voters of the constituencies in the district.

3. Usage of loudspeakers of any kind whatsoever during the 48-hour period leading up to the closing time of the polls.

4. Displaying any election matter including results of any opinion poll or any other poll survey in any electronic media.

5. Use of cellular phones, cordless phones, wireless sets etc. within the polling Station except for Observers appointed by the Commission, micro observers, Officers in charge of law and order, security personnel put on duty near the polling booth, Officer-in-charge of Polling duties and persons deployed for polling duty.

6. Use of cordless phones, wireless sets etc. within 100 metres of a polling Station except for officers on duty.

7. Electioneering and setting up of Election booth within 100 metre area around the Polling Stations on the date of poll.

8. Setting up of more than one Election booth of a candidate beyond the 100 metre distance of a polling station location even if more than one polling stations has been setup at the same Polling Station Location or premises.

9. Carrying of arms or indulging in show of arms in Polling Stations or Polling Station neighborhood except those who are expressly permitted by Section 134 B of Representation of People Act, 1951.

The expression “unlawful assembly” and “public meeting” appearing in this order will not stand in the way of citizens going about their normal business and chores, voting and celebrating the festival of democracy. The order shall not deter the assembly of persons in the voting area/shopping at market places/cinema halls and other places of entertainment, gathering in the normal course of work/business/marriage ceremonies/funeral rites/gathering for private functions etc. as long as they do not indulge in anything illegal or foment trouble or cause breach of peace. This shall not restrict house-to-house visits during 48 hours in connection with door-to-door campaigning. The Order shall not apply to agencies/officials of the Government involved in the enforcement of law and order, conduct of elections and maintenance of essential services.

The emergent nature of the cases and circumstances do not permit serving of notice to the concerned in due time and hence this order is passed ex-parte u/s 163 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023.

This order shall come into force with effect from 06:00 PM of 7-4-2026 and will remain in force till 06:00 AM of 10-4-2026. Any violation of the order is punishable under section 223 of The Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 and other relevant provisions of the law.

Given under my hand and seal on the day dated 6-4-2026.

ANU KUMARI IAS,
District Magistrate.
